SILVER IN CANDELARIA.

The League in a Flourishing Condition.

CANDELARIA, June 12.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—Knowing the interest you take in the Silver Movement, I take the liberty of informing you that Candelaria is not behind other towns throughout the State, in the formation of a Silver League, which is known as the Southern Esmeralda. We have a membership of 320 comprising Candelaria, Columbus, Silver Peak, Alida Valley, Montezuma, Tule Canyon and the Indian Queen Mine. On Thursday night last, the Honorable P. M. Bowler who was here on professional business, addressed a large and appreciative meeting of the Southern Esmeralda Silver League, at Candelaria Hall.

The gentleman's remarks were received with the utmost attention and listened to with pleasure, he pointed out the inconstancy of both the Democratic and Republican parties in not fulfilling the promises they have made to the people in party platforms since the demonization of silver in 1873, urging us to stand firm in the cause we have espoused and not to be influenced by the wiles of office holders, or the duplicity of professional politicians, when they come amongst us soliciting our votes in the coming campaign.

Mr. Bowler's remarks were received with the utmost enthusiasm and a vote of thanks from the League tendered him at its conclusion.

The news of Harrison's nomination did not elicit the same enthusiasm on this occasion as it did four years since. What a contrast, then our flag was hoisted, bonfires built in the street, and everyone was joyous and happy, no flag hoisted now no enthusiasm on the present occasion. The general impression, "he was weighed in the balance and found wanting" prevails, and it is safe to assert that all the votes he will receive in this town can be counted on the fingers of your right hand.

The members of our League are all citizens, they have cut loose from the traditional policy of both political parties and are only too eager to antagonize the present administration and the members of the legislative bodies of the nation who have paralyzed the principal industry of our State by hostile legislation.

Earnestly hoping their efforts will be successful in the coming campaign. I remain truly yours,

MAX.

Our Ladies and the World's Fair.

Mrs. Lida Russell one of the Women Commissioners to the World's Fair, accompanied by Mrs. Gov. Colcord and daughter Stella called at the Appeal office yesterday in the interest of Nevada's display. The young lady, apparently interested in her work says:

"We want the papers of this State to work with the ladies and constantly keep before the residents in general the good following an action intended to benefit the State and the necessity of formulating a plan of operation at once. At present I am on a tour throughout the State for the expressed purpose of securing as much information from the ladies as possible and to learn what action and interest they propose to take."

"I assure you their efforts will prove of material importance in the end and they will not be found inactive. We need a building on the ground, reliable agents to look after the displays and several other things which require capital to procure. It is quite possible that we may receive financial aid from individuals but I am not at liberty to enlighten you at present."

"Miss Davies, of Genoa, and Mrs. Foley, of Reno, members of the Commission, are doing everything for the cause, and in a few days something of interest may develop."

Miss Russell is certainly working in the right direction, and the people can well afford to let the ladies handle it to suit themselves. The APPEAL is anxious to see Nevada make a display at Chicago, and every soul in its borders should give the movement some impetus.
